

Beyond the great Abyss

"Holy smokes, this book is like a freight train/roller coaster that ends on point like a ballerina. Becca's journey to self-realization after divorce at the age of 48 is just astounding. I am truly blown away to have taken that journey with her – which is how I feel, that I went on her journey with her. I am in awe."

Gretchen Vogel

Medium and author of Choices in the Afterlife

"Becca's words and writing explode across the pages with emotion and passion. She truly is an exceptional writer who has that ability to capture both the rawness of life and the most delicate and intimate of moments. Ernest Hemingway was such a writer."

John R. Monahan

Sergeant Major, Retired

Becca Chambers is a natural health healer in Lexington, MA (B.S. in Biology, Naturopathy graduate degree) who has spent the last 15 years discovering powerful new energy therapies that have led to a transformation of her life on every level including the development of mind-bending intuitive abilities. Once 200 pounds, severely bulimic, beset by numerous health issues, chronically depressed, and crippled in her relationships with men and women, she now radiates health and happiness. And using her newfound intuitive abilities to help guide her, Becca has achieved greater heights than she ever dreamed of in her love life, career, creative output, and finding one's purpose in life.
